

The lyrics for All Things Bright & Beautiful were written by Mrs Cecil Alexander. Some people think the words "The purple-headed mountain, the river running by" are inspired by the sight of the River Usk running by the Sugar Loaf or Brecon mountains.

Can you write a new verse to this hymn, inspired by a place that is beautiful to you? You might even like to perform and record it!

There are over 900,000 different identified types of insects in the world. Can you design an undiscovered insect? Be as creative as you like! You could draw, paint, or even make a model!

The hymn talks about the many colours of birds and flowers in the world. How many different flowers or birds can you spot through your window or when you're out walking? How many different colours can you see? Coch, melyn, pinc, glas... Can you make a graph or a chart?

"The ripe fruits in the garden, He made them every one."

We have been tasting some delicious fruit in school. Can you make a poster, leaflet, presentation or video clip to encourage your classmates to eat a rainbow of different fruits and vegetables?

Have you ever seen a beautiful sunrise or sunset? Can you create a picture, poem or dance inspired by the sun?

Blaenavon is part of our wonderful world.
